Dumping a load of sh proves a challenge

Everyone loves Whangamatā. Throughout the year, thousands of people arrive in campervans and motorhomes to enjoy the attractions the area has to offer.

Once upon a year or two ago, my husband Peter and I lived in Whangamatā, but when the family home sold and Peter was offered work in the South Island, off we went in our campervan, looking for adventure in our own country.

Ours is a 2021 camper with all the bells and whistles, including a cassette toilet and a separate shower. Now, just to let you know, (although it's a bit of a delicate topic) a toilet cassette for two of us requires emptying roughly every three days

When we came back to Whanga in August we were kindly hosted by Whangamata RSA for a couple of days.

When the red line on the cassette monitor showed, and knowing the dump station was in Martyn Road, off we rumbled to 'do a dump'.

It was closed - padlocked with a roughly handwritten CLOSED sign on it. Ye gods! Fortunately we had a spare cassette which saved the day.

A phone call to TCDC elicited a lukewarm response. The person I spoke to had no idea why it was closed and suggested we go to Tairua - 35 km away - or Waihi, about 30km.

We were staying with friends and had no desire to travel in either direction. Days later we headed back to stay with our friends in Piopio.

Now it's October and we're BACK in Whangamatā!! Yay!!

The time came for another offload – but the dump station was CLOSED AGAIN!

New toilets were being installed right next to it but I thought I'd ring TCDC again to find out what was happening.

After a short time on `hold' I was told the council was waiting for a part and they hoped the hole in the ground would be operational by Labour Weekend. I could go to the Whangamata Campground or to Opoutere camp - `but you'll have to pay'

Footnote: We checked the dump station the following day (Friday October 14) and it was OPEN!!!

Well done TCDC - but I suspect as there are more than 100,000 members of the New Zealand Motor Caravan Association (NZMCA) as well as thousands of tourists back on our roads in campers, quite a few were inconvenienced by the

Cyclone Recovery Ongoing

It's been a year since our region and other parts of New Zealand were devastated by severe weather events.

The damage done to roads, people's homes and property, transport networks, small businesses and to our daily lives has left a lasting mark on our communities.

Sometimes the worst of situations brings out the best in people and communities. There was a lot of that during last year's weather crisis turmoil. Looking back now, for me it is one of the most enduring memories as I saw so many examples of people, neighbours and communities working together to help each other out at a time of great need.

The recovery is still ongoing and I'm pleased the Coromandel has been included in the latest round of emergency relief funding from the coalition Government. The bulk of the funding is being allocated to stabilising parts of our highway network where there is a potential for slips during future heavy weather events. We've also provided funding across the wider Hauraki and Thames-Coromandel districts for river management, removal of storm damaged trees, and replanting of willow and poplar poles. There's still work to do to, but twelve months on and we're in much better shape than we were.

I'm back at Parliament and we're in the middle of what is called a four week sitting session. It's relatively unusual for Parliament to sit for four consecutive weeks, but it's an indication of how much work that the coalition Government wants to get through to get the country back on track. After six years of massively wasteful spending and a lack of delivery it's good to be getting on with doing all the things we'd promised New Zealanders we'd do. We're working through our 100 day plan that is focused on delivering for all New Zealanders.

'Number eight' Kiwi ingenuity

Thank you Paula Bennett (NZ Herald 11/2/24) for highlighting that our traditional ingenuity and resourcefulness is being stifled by regulation. We have created for ourselves a world that is obsessed with liability. Nobody wants to risk being blamed for anything that may go awry

While the welfare and care for our people is a worthy goal, Health and Safety has become an onerous beast that dominates boardrooms, workplaces and all manner of activity. Health and Safety plans, risk mitigation, hazard identification, etc, have all grown in complexity and add an increasing burden of cost to society and the economy.

Health and Safety and, in particular, traffic management have become substantial and costly growth industries whose function is often widely disproportionate to the task at hand.

As Paula points out "you can't legislate for stupidity". Over-regulation is squeezing the life out of our once renowned common sense and innovation.

Incident Support Vehicle updated

Our brigade has had a great Christmas break with a low number of calls. Trainings have commenced once again for the year with the focus on vegetation fires and operation of pumps due to the weather increasing risks throughout the district. Our plea again is that precautions are taken to prevent fires

Your donations from our community over a long period have allowed us to update our incident support vehicle .The brigade owned Ute is to be used to transport additional equipment, personnel and provide scene safety at incidents.

Our team now is currently looking into upgrading the kitchen facilities in the station .Large scale incidents and weather events will be supported more effectively with the proposed changes. Donations generated going forward will help fund this project.

Without your generous support such projects would not be possible. We are extremely grateful and proud to operate in such a thankful district.

Wishing you a safe week.

- CFO Nigel Airey

Operation Emerald

This week we executed a search warrant on an address just slightly out of town, north of Whangamatā, acting on information of the supply of illicit drugs. Over a period of time we have had many people asking when there will be action taken here. A fairly large cannabis plantation was also discovered. Enquiries are ongoing and we haven't finished yet. Thank you to those who have obliged and provided information to Police, your help has really made a difference to this community. Any further information can be provided in complete confidence and assured that your identity will be kept secret.

BEACH HOP

Our favourite time of year is nearly on us where we once again welcome our many visitors to town. There as usual is a 24 hour liquor ban in the Whangamatā area over this period. Pop on to the TCDC website to see the dates and times. Remember to tell your friends, family and visitors to avoid any unintentional breaches.

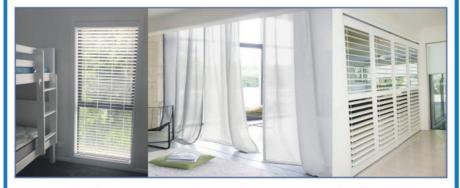

DON'T DELAY, CALL TODAY

Not a cheesy sales pitch. If you see something not right, don't wait to let us know, call 111 if it is happening now or just happened. Getting a few reports that happened 'a few days ago' or 'last week sometime' that if we had known about at the time could have made a huge difference or even caught a burglar.

Friend, community leader, free spirit & wordsmith bids farewell

Our dear friend, colleague, professional, renowned journalist and Editor, Lesley Staniland left us on 9 February, 2024.

As soon as I posted about her passing, over 100 tributes poured in, such incredible love, endearments, memories and notes of respect - and so deserved.

Lesley Staniland was born 22 May, 1950, in Tauranga. Her early days saw her family moving a lot, as her Dad was in the Air Force. She attended St Stephens in Marton briefly, Katikati Primary, Marton Junction School, Rangitikei College, and Whakatāne High School.

Her sister, Pam, tells us that Lesley really had no formal tertiary education. "Lesley did it all on her own!"

A rebellious teenager with a passion for aeroplanes and cars - cop-baiting the law in her Dad's Austin 7. In later years, we called her 'lead-foot Les'.

An intrepid traveller to India, Bolivia twice, England and Nepal, she loved to see the real people and how they lived.

Her sister Sue tells us "her vibrancy, humour and sisterhood will be sorely

Her career started with NAC as a travel agent. She then moved on to be a proofreader for The Truth, always a wordsmith.

Lesley had the drive to look ahead, keep going, in spite of adversities.

I met Lesley over 35 years ago while she was a reporter for the Mount News. She joined a small and intrepid team - they were tight-knit, like a family really. She also had many roles under the Bay of Plenty Times umbrella, with the Te Puke Times, a Bay of Plenty Times sub-editor, feature writer, photographer and reporter.

Following that, she became Editor of Whangamatā's Coastal News, and then, as only both of us knew we would, we created a local newspaper - much needed to be the 'Voice of Whanga'.

We knocked the first edition out in 10 days, it arrived 6.30am that 2019 morning and we both tore the bundles open to see our dream become a reality.

That was the beginning of a journey like no other...

> Lesley was colourful in every way: her bright white short hair, zany tights, hot lipsticks, loads of silver jewellery and a colourful word or two!

Spectacular dress, shoe fashion, op shop hunter and a fabulous sense of humour. Always with a glass in hand, socialising, and enjoying the odd bet or two!

A collector of art, pottery, textiles, a weaver and spinner - she was generous in every way with time, friendship and money.

A beloved wife to Peter West, sister, Mum to Jamie and Charlie. Noni and Great Noni to her grandies and my best buddy - sorely and terribly missed by all of us.

EW Business Association speaker: Noddy Watts

This was Enterprise Whangamata's (EW) first BA5 of the year and the location was stunning – at the recently opened Edison's in the old movie theatre building.

Moved forward from the last Thursday of the month just in case it clashed with our hosts Laura and Andrew's pending baby arrival, it was an enthralling meeting as Noddy Watts, Repco Beach Hop 24 spokesman, outlined some of the plans for next month. As usual they were extensive and exciting, I suggest you pick up a copy of the Festival Programme on sale early March so you don't miss a thing.

The organisers have had a tough past four years with Covid affecting festivals 2020, 2021 and 2022 followed by the disaster of SH25a closing in January last year. Hopefully it's plain sailing through the build-up to Repco Beach Hop 24 which will kick off on Wednesday, 20 March.

The team has a well-proven format, however, they're always looking to create new additions to the festival which Noddy outlined.

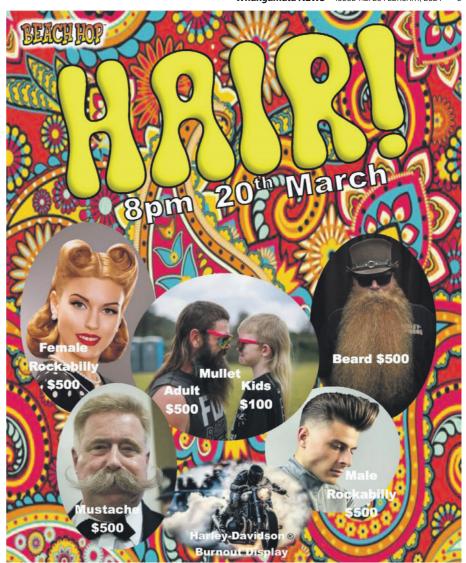

HAIR is an iconic stage musical and movie from the late '60s, so they've created HAIR! at the Repco Garage (Summer Bar) on Wednesday 20 March. This is a mullet, beard, moustache and '50s and '60s hairstyle (men and women) competition with great cash prizes up for grabs.

MC for the night is well known comedian Brendhan Lovegrove who'll be keeping the crowds entertained, plus Harley-Davidson are bringing their drag burnout bike to do a demonstration at 10:30pm.

Noddy also fittingly announced that EW has stepped up and offered $500 to go towards the annual 'Top Shop' prize, so our local businesses are encouraged to dress their businesses and staff in '50s and '60s themes. The winner is chosen by the public so businesses need to register with the Beach Hop team who'll be visiting over the next couple of weeks.

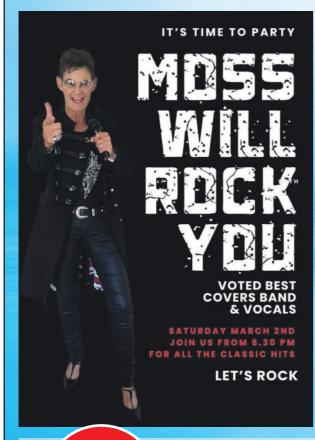

The Repco Beach Hop Committee has also created a new incentive for local businesses to sell Repco Beach Hop 24 Festival Programmes. Any retailer business who sells at least three bundles of Programmes will go into the draw to win a $250 Beach Hop Prize Pack.

At the conclusion of Noddy's presentation, he was approached by local businesses Palm Pacific Resort and Whangamata Cycles who've teamed up and offered a prize voucher of a weekend for two in Whangamatā, including the use of two e-bikes. Noddy was ecstatic and commented that it's exciting to see local businesses working together to support the festival. The next event for EW is their Business Expo on Tuesday, 5 March and then on 19 April, one of New Zealand's top sports journalists and media personalities, Phil Gifford, will be speaking at the Rugby Club.

Wanted: Helicopter Pilots

Most people spend too much time in their business, not on their business

On Tuesday, 5 March, here in Whangamatā you have the chance to hop in the helicopter and take a good long look at your business.

Whangamatā's Business Expo

- IT: is it up to the task; are you at risk of scams?
- Finances / Tax / GST: can you claim more?
- Marketing: are you doing anything - should you?
- Legal: legal documentation, estate planning, wills; time for a review?
- Procurement: you'll be staggered at the savings you can make.
- Point of Sale: become conversant with the latest, ordering and time.

Enterprise Whangamata, your local business association is delighted to present their inaugural Business Expo. The chance for members and nonmembers to set their businesses and themselves up for the year.

Normally to get in front of some of these people, it might cost you a great deal more than $200 an hour. Enterprise Whangamata is offering it to the town for the cost of breakfast.

NOT A MEMBER YET? Our RSA is family friendly and encourages all members of your family to be involved. Anyone is able to join and we have a FREE Kids Club. Our library has a range of kids & adults books and jigsaw puzzles.

RETURNED AND SERVICES

On Tuesday, 5 March, from 7.30am to 9am at the Whangamata Club restaurant, enjoy a delicious 'Carl's Delight' breakfast during which each expert on the panel will present a brief outline.

WHANGAMATA

Then, from 9am to 1pm, you can book a private complimentary 30 minute one-on-one meeting with any of the six experts and professionals this town is so lucky

Numbers are limited, so until 25 February it's EW members first for only $20 including Carl's Delight; thereafter we welcome non-members for only $30.

To learn more about the Business Expo, it's presenters and register please go to whangamata.org.nz or see the advertisement on pg 7.

Chair of Enterprise Whangamata, Patrick Kerr believes the town will support this initiative. "Our association is all about helping our town and for most that starts with business. Healthy businesses guarantee our town will remain strong and vibrant. Support this Expo and we will put more of these business initiatives together".

101 Lindsay Road decision goes community's way

Many will recall the situation in July 2021, when the property at 101 Lindsay Road was at threat of being declared surplus and sold by TCDC. This resulted in protest from a number of groups, including the Whangamatā Community Marae Trust who had long considered the property as a potential site for a Community Marae.

In response to these objections, TCDC gave the community until December 2023 to develop a business case for the future use of

With the challenge laid, a group of Whangamatā entities came together to tautoko (support) the Marae Trust in the development of a business case. Included were the Eastern Coromandel Community Services Trust, Whangamatā Resource Recovery Trust, the Arts Collective and Theatre Society, MenzShed and

In August 2023, after a year's work, the working group submitted a business case to the Community

Board for the establishment of a 'Community Marae and Wellbeing Hub'.

From there, and with the business case endorsed, it went to TCDC where it was fully considered at their December meeting. Locals were given the opportunity to speak, with presentations by the Chairs of the Marae Trust and the Social Services Trust, and from Te Awheroa Gilbert as mana whenua representative.

Council then asked for more time, advising that a decision would be made at their 13 February meeting this year.

As you can imagine, there were great feelings of anticipation leading up to the meeting, with many travelling to hear the debate and the decision, including representatives from Ngāti Pū.

After nearly an hour of questions and answers, Councillors were asked to vote, and in a triumph for community spirit and hard work, the following resolutions were passed:

- Resolved to support the 101 Lindsay Rd Working Group's proposal to establish a Community Marae and Wellbeing Hub over part of the land at 101 Lindsay Rd, Whangamatā.
- · Directs staff to enter into negotiations with the 101 Lindsay Rd working group to determine a solution that provides for a viable depot and a viable Community Marae and commences the relevant process to turn a portion of the land into reserve

· Requests staff to engage with the 101 Lindsay Rd Working Group and report back to Council with viable options for the lease of part of the land at 101 Lindsay Rd, Whangamatā that meets the needs of all stakeholders.

Fittingly, Councillor Terry Walker who led the motion to defer the land sale in 2021 was in Chambers for the vote.

His grin (and that of fellow Councillor Gary Gotlieb), said it all, with a celebratory haka echoing around the room and hardly a dry eye in the public gallery.

"This is an historic and symbolic day for Whangamatā, and I am excited to see the master site plan developed in conjunction with Council, and then the external fundraising by the Community Groups can get underway", Terry

Sold! For an incredible $1.67m

A tiny yellow bach on a big section in Whangamatā sold under the hammer last week for an impressive $1.675 million as buyers continue to hunt for the perfect section to build their dream homes.

The desirability of the prominent corner site on Otahu Road meant the family trust selling it after many decades pocketed $1,675,000 more than they had been counting on.

Bayleys auctioneer Stephen Shale announced the property on the market at $1.5m, but the six bidders continued to fight over the 1972 classic just two streets back from the beach placing a total of 25 bids mainly between $10,000 and $25,000 increments on Thursday.

Bayleys listing agent Dale Sholson said the 729sqm section attracted a lot of interest from holidaymakers over summer and was marketed as having 'oodles of parking for boats and cars with still room to pitch a tent for family and friends'

It was also in a popular part of Whangamatā due to being close to both Ocean Beach and the estuary.

"So many people have walked past it for the last 30 and 40 years and always wondered about it," he said.

It was in largely original condition and behind its canary yellow exterior were mint green walls and dark green carpet.

"It was basically untouched from 1972 apart from gas and hot water."

The new owners are understood to have bought it to eventually bowl the existing bach and build a new home on it just as the people next door had done.

TCDC decision applauded

Over the last 12 months, you will have read about the work and ideas of the Whangamata Ratepayers Association (WRA) as we have moved through the year with a wide range of initiatives and reported the various outcomes in this column. We have also focussed on raising awareness of and stimulating further discussion on the many local issues and opportunities which impact our community.

WRA applauds the recent decision by TCDC not to declare 101 Lindsay Road surplus to requirements, the importance of retaining this land for the benefit of the community and future generations cannot be underestimated. Congratulations to everyone involved in achieving this landmark result.

This Saturday, 24 February, at 11am, the Whangamata Ratepayers Association AGM will take place in the Baptist Hall on Port Road, Whangamatā, followed by our guest speaker Mayor Len Salt. Your attendance would be welcome and appreciated.

The hall will be open from 10:30am onwards for WRA member registration. Members of the public are also invited to attend the meeting and we advise all those planning to attend not to leave it to the last minute to arrive. AGM proceedings will begin promptly at 11am at which point the doors will close.

Ratepayers' associations are often perceived as being at the bottom of the pyramid of local government participation. WRA is working hard to reverse that perception and to create change which requires action in the form of engagement. We invite you to join us on that increase.

Becoming a financial member of the Whangamata Ratepayers Association is a first step. WRA subscription is $10. Putting your name forward to join the WRA management committee is a slightly larger step. Our management committee would welcome new members to make a difference at this grassroots level of local government and help overturn the pyramid in the coming year.

Community pool now more accessible

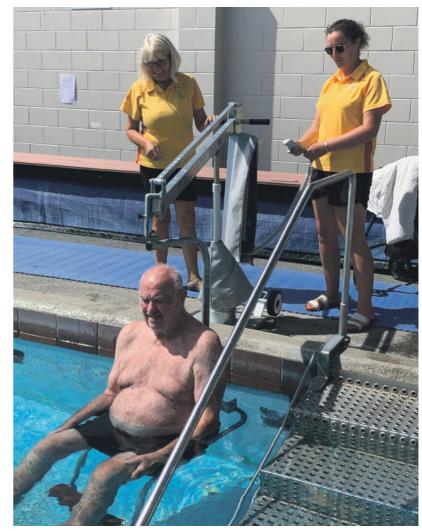

Whangamata Real Estate Community Swimming Pool recently installed an accessible hoist for those with physical difficulties when accessing and leaving the pool.

This was made possible by generous donations from Pub Charity Ltd and Whangamata Community Health.

Providing access for all has always been a high priority for the Whangamata Community Swimming Pool management committee, we are extremely grateful to these organisations who supported our vision.

Harry Sydney the first person to access the pool on the hoist, with pool lifeguards Denise Boston and Monique Thomas on hoist controls.

Harry was able to "enjoy the benefits of being in the pool, the first time for 20 years" said a beaming Harry.

We welcome families and individuals who may wish to use this device and look forward to meeting potential users who may just wish to come and check it out.

To give pool staff prior notice, and arrange set up of the hoist, please contact the pool through the Whangamata Real Estate Community Swimming Pool Facebook page or email manager.whangapool@gmail.com

Owens & Groube claim first summer wins

Dunedin's Alexis Owen and Pauanui surfer Lola Groube have clinched their first major wins of the summer taking out the second leg of the Billabong Grom Series presented by Oceanbridge completed at Whangamatā over the weekend. The two surfers stormed to victory in the Under 16 Divisions.

The surf faded away after day one of the event leaving waves under the 1.0m mark but the offshore winds kept conditions clean all day to complete the second of three events in the series.

Alexis Owen had stood out on day one of the event and despite a decrease in swell, the powerful young surfers looked unstoppable on Sunday, surfing to a 14.33 point heat total.

"Pretty happy with the win today, it was my first major win of the year and ends a streak of seconds, yeah, winning is good" said a modest Owen.

Where others battled to find the peeling waves in the afternoon low tide, Owen seemed to pick off the best waves, a strategy he had from the outset.

"I was just waiting for the bigger sets that held up and focussed on smashing them," he added as he now turns his focus to the final event of the series held at Piha on the 24-25 February.

Owen beat Sam Frazerhurst (Auck) in the final, Frazerhurst getting the edge in a close fought battle for the runner up position with Jaxon Willows (Mnt) finishing in third place and first time finalist Harrison Biddle (WGM) getting onto the podium for the local surfers finishing in fourth.

Lola Groube controlled the Under 16 Girls Final from start to finish but not before a late scare. Seemingly safe in first place with Raglan's Alani Morse sniping the line up and chasing a 7.91, it was actually Maja Mateja (Rag) that came close to snatching the victory.

The Raglan surfer waited over 15 minutes to get her first wave but posted an 8.0 point ride.

She raced back out the back and tried to find a 5.14 for the win but came up short with a 3.57, enough to get her into second and push Morse back to third with Poppy Entwisle (Tara) in fourth.

"That was my first win this year and I am super stoked," said Groube. "This weekend I found the right waves in the right places and that got me the win but all the girls have been pushing my surfing, we often end up in the same heats at the end of the events so it is good to surf against them all the time and push each other's surfing," added Groube.

Sol Fritchley claimed his third straight win of the season in the Under 14 Boys Division, this time getting pushed by Jesse Frazerhurst (Auckland) who matched his older brothers result with a second. Piha groms Zeke Pragert and Zac Becroft finished in third and fourth respectively.

It was the diminutive Zade Nias Phillips from Ahipara who won the Under 14 Girls Division.

With new talent emerging from a number of regions, this is the third different event winner this season. Mount Maunganui took a stranglehold on the minor placings with Jayda Bramley, Millie Dyck and Nami Marsden finishing second through fourth.

Maya Mateja won the Volkswagen Highest Single Wave Score Award for her 9.43 point ride in the semifinals of the Under 16 Girls Division.

WSLSC Northern region scoops 27 medals

Last weekend, the WSLSC hosted the Northern Regional Seniors Championship. Hundreds of athletes and their supporters entered with Whangamatā being a central location to hold the intrepid competition.

There held was 127 races, where all the medals were up for grabs and the Whangamatā club results are an incredible: 27 medals, 7 Gold, 11 silvers and 9 Bronze.

Gold and Silver for Whangamatā in the U15 Beach Flags with Max Riordan taking the gold over fellow teammate Will Robinson. Both boys featured again winning gold alongside teammates Finn Fremantle and reserve Oscar Kidd in the U17 beach relay. Gold also for Holly Warden in the U17 Female Board Race and Isla Petherbridge in the Under 19 Female Surf Race.

Double gold for Maggie Robinson in the U19 Female Ski and Under 19 Female Board Races. Madi Kidd won Gold in the Open Women Beach Flags.

With 17 clubs represented, Whangamatā placed 5th overall, a triumphant result in any one's book.

WSLSC also hosted on 10 and 11 February, alongside Eastern Region Surf Life Saving, the Eastern Region Junior Championships. Racing both Saturday and Sunday.

The Eastern Regional Junior Carnival offers almost all of the events available at Oceans '24 Festival of Surf. This provided a weekend where Junior Lifesavers can test their skills and speed across the sand and in the surf to demonstrate water confidence and teamwork.

WSLSC team of 12 has trained hard all season under Hunter's teachings and coaching and the weekend racing efforts showed. Well Done to Beth, Toby, Harlee-Rose, Smith, & Olivia on your first regional carnival. Special mention to our five Under 13/14 Whanga all-girls Grand Cameron Composite Team with Olivia, Poppy, Nelly, Ruby & Zara claiming Silver place beating the clubs with the correct combination 3F/3M.

Another star looking over us

On 29 January, 2024, we lost our friend Nita Petersen. A remarkable woman who lived a remarkable life.

Nita was known to so many of us in Whangamatā. Earlier years saw Nita and family holidaying at the Barbara Avenue Camp.

Then, around 20 years ago Nita, Pete and family came to live in Whangamatā permanently.

Together they designed and built their home in Given Avenue and the beginnings of a beautiful garden where so many of us have enjoyed its beauty and all the birds that frequented it.

Nita quickly became involved in the Garden Club, Probus, Bromeliad society and Arts collective. The past five years saw her an active member of the Whangamata Cancer Support

On many occasions, Nita hosted the Bromeliad Society, Garden

Club and many Art Trails in her lovely garden. Not so very long ago, Nita was made a Life Member of the Garden Club Not only was she a great artist but she was a mentor to many as well' teaching students various art skills.

Nita was also very community minded and worked hard to help the town raise money for our Community hall which is such an asset to our town

When asked to become a resident judge for the garden club monthly exhibits, she agreed, researched and carried out this task with much enthusiasm.

A friend is a present you give yourself. She is so missed. RIP Nita.

A memorial Service is to be held for Nita at the Whangamata Ocean Sports Club, Friday 5th April 2024 from 10am. All friends

Can you help? Jordan has not been found

It's been 16 weeks (29 October) since Jordan and his dog Bagho entered the Wentworth Valley track at approximately 1pm to go for a walk toward the waterfall.

Jordan has not been seen since.

The ground search was called off after five days.

There were a few occasions over the following weeks when another search was made in particular areas but there were no clues found at all.

Nine weeks later, Bagho walked out of the bush at Wire Road, approximately 20kms away.

The Police organised another search and, on two occasions, they searched the area where he came out, Wire Track and Maratoto Track.

We would like to conduct a more extensive search of the Wentworth Valley area from the Waterfall Lookout, where there was an unconfirmed sighting on the day he went missing, towards the track crossing the Tairua river.

CAN YOU HELP?

The help we need is for the people to be hunters and/or bush savvy. We need them to be safe because it's the bush we are searching, the track and close to the track has already been searched.

It's important they have GPS and/or personal locator beacons.

The search will be coordinated by a local man who has over 35 years experience in the bush and knows the area well.

Beach art creations at our library

The Whangamata Community Library have started creative afternoons on Wednesdays from 3pm to 4pm, during the school term, aimed at primary school-aged children.

There will be a different activity each week, including craft, music, Lego, growing plants and more.

Come alone boys and girls, it's so much fun!

A goin coin donation towards materials would be appreciated.

Plenty of fun-filled activities for Kids' Club

We thoroughly enjoyed caring for our community's children over the five weeks, the programme was a huge success, adding another exciting edition of this popular holiday pastime.

We are proud to work alongside local businesses and talents; we really appreciate their efforts and contributions to the programme. Our highlights included the Whangamata Fire Brigade who visited us to share their knowledge, cooling off the children with their fire hose! As well as kayaking and paddleboarding with Chris from Pedal and Paddle, T-Ball coaching with Lindsay Martin, and handicrafts with weaver and needle felter

Cherry Estcourt.

The children also made flower arrangements for Comfort Kai, our weekly free community meal and we enjoyed exploring our beautiful backyard with trips to the beach, the wharf and further afield, to Broken Hills and Parakiwai watering hole.

You can see us next time during the April school holidays: From 8:30am to 3:30pm. Ages 5 to 13 years old. $25 a day.

World Day of Prayer

FRIDAY, 1 MARCH

"I Beg you...Bear with One Another in Love"

World Day of Prayer is an international movement of Christian people in many different traditions that have a continuing relationship of prayer and service. People from various denominations gather in one another's churches to celebrate, using a Worship Service prepared by women of a different country each year. Women, men and young people share the language, customs and music of that country, right around the globe.

Observed on the first Friday in March each year, is a worldwide movement of informed prayer involving people of many denominations and languages in more than 170 countries. Each year the service is written by women in a different country who share the hopes and fears, joys and sorrows, opportunities and needs of their country. It affirms that informed prayer and prayerful action are inseparable.

This year the service is prepared by the Palestine Christian Committee. It will be held at the Community Church on Beverly Terrace, Whangamatā, at 10am.

This year, the service is led by the Methodist Presbyterian Church and be followed by a morning tea.

All Churches will be asked to share in this International service.

World Day of Prayer is an international movement of Christian people in many different traditions that have a continuing relationship of prayer and service. People from various denominations gather in one another's churches to celebrate, using a Worship Service prepared by women of a different country each year. Women, men and young people share the language, customs and music of that country, right around the globe.

World Day of Prayer was begun by a group of women in the United States in 1887 and has grown to include over 180 countries and regions worldwide. In New Zealand, the first nationwide worship service was held in 1931. In 2008, World Day of Prayer in this country was incorporated as a Society.

Each year the National committee takes the service and brings it to the local communities while gaining an ever-growing and deepening understanding of the global and ecumenical community as a dynamic unity made visible on the first Friday of March. This process takes a lot of love, care and work. It takes open hearts, and a willingness to go beyond what is familiar

Books

MATTHEW BLAKE

Anna hasn't opened her eyes for four years... Not since the night she was found in a deep sleep by the bodies of her best friends, suspected of a chilling double murder.

For Doctor Benedict Prince, a forensic psychologist on London's Harley Street, waking Anna O could be career-defining. As an expert in sleep, he knows all about the darkest chambers of the mind, the secrets that lie buried in the subconscious.

Awakening Anna O's treatment - studying his patient's dreams, combing her memories, visiting the site where the horrors plated out - he pulls on the thread of a much deeper, darker mystery.

THE SHOWMAN

SIMON SHUSTER

Based on four years of reporting, extensive travels with President Zelenskyto the front, and dozens of interviews with him, his wife, his friends and enemies, his advisers and military commanders.

The Showman tells an intimate story and eye opening story of the President's evolution from a slapstick actor to a symbol of resilience, revealing how he managed to rally the world's democracies behind his cause.

The Recent Arrival

The young girl was new to the school

She sat quietly and listened The teacher was explaining the importance of

How best a town can work
The young girl's eyes just glistened
The teacher spoke softly yet loud enough

So everyone could hear The 10-year-olds were attentive No rattle from a chair

She spoke of the importance of helping where we can It really makes a difference if we lend a helping hand

The young girl looked uneasy her discomfort plain to see

That's when the girls behind her moved to her left and to her right They said that they would help her settle in

And keep her in their sight
The young girl's eyes were speaking her answer in her tears

She was sure she was welcome here

And held their hands gently to alleviate her fears

TCDC Business Forum Hui 2024

Our Business Associations (BAs) are running hot early in 2024, continuing to drive activity and morale around our district so that we have vibrant and thriving communities. This is the result of a joint effort between our dedicated BA chairs and members, our Council and Ministry of Business, Innovation and Employment (MBIE), to push ahead with initiatives for post recovery and resilience.

To keep up the momentum, our Economic Development team hosted a business forum hui in Whangamatā. This was an opportunity to discuss how our Council can collectively support our business communities throughout 2024.

The hui was attended by business associations, information centres, and other representatives who supported our business Cyclone recovery work last year.

Business Association highlights and upcoming events:

All of our district's business associations (BAs) were allocated funding mid-2023, as part of a joint initiative between our Council and MBIE to support our local economy following the impact of Cyclone Gabrielle. Each BA developed a plan of work in consultation with our Economic Development Team.. The focus was on creating initiatives that would attract visitors back to the region, after the devastation caused by the weather events at the beginning of 2023.

Asking the BAs to develop and lead this work, has helped empower local business owners to make decisions based on what they saw as the best opportunities to reinvigorate their local business community. Initiatives have included events, networking opportunities, training and upskill sessions, and one-on-one support with business support mentors.

Here's some highlights and upcoming events of note.

Thames Business Association

Thames BA also hosted a hugely successful Wings and Wheels this summer, with over 5,000 people enjoying a showcase of aeroplanes, both modern and vintage from around the world, vintage cars including a 1926 Tudor Form Model

T, Trucks, motorcycles music and more. explorethames.nz/businessassociation

Enterprise Whangamatā

Business After 5 hosted 'Noddy Watts from Beach Hop at Edisons Cinema Lane, which is the new event facility that's recently opened. . Booking is also open for the Business Expo '24 on 5 March. Local experts in IT, Finance, Procurement, POS Innovation, Legal and Marketing will be available for private meetings, questions and conversation. Details for both events can be found here.

Enterprise Whangamatā also recently hosted the inaugural Paradise Coast Golf Classic. This fantastic event attracted over 100 golfers to three days of golf, playing between The Lakes Resort in Pauanui, Tairua Golf and

bayleys.co.nz/2221264

Country Club, culminating in a third day of competition at Titoki in Whangamatā.

And keep an eye out for updates on this year's Wild Women's Weekend, scheduled for May.

Tairua BA

The newly formed Tairua Business Association is doing a fantastic job providing avenues for local entrepreneurs and businesses to advertise their services, products and specials, and to share events and matters of interest to the community. It supported the recent Amazing Race which saw teams of six race around Tairua using a map and navigational skills to traverse the course as quickly as possible, with prizes for best dressed, those who had the most fun and spot prizes throughout the day.

Exciting Pauanui

Community unity was on full display when Pauanui locals and visitors joined the inaugural Pauanui Pink Walk in a show of support for the Breast Cancer Foundation New Zealand. The coastal town turned into a pink haven as 135 participants, spanning all ages, donned vibrant outfits, and walked together in a visually-stunning spectacle along Pauanui's scenic pathways and

RAM & JILL, SELLERS

Lindsay's successful marketing campaign with great photography and a cool video along with the @realty team proved to be the difference in selling our apartment in a very challenging and difficult market. With a limited buyer pool, Lindsay's marketing generated lots of enquiries and good attendance numbers at the open homes.

MAREE & DARRYL, SELLERS

Throughout the process and successful sale, Lindsay kept us fully informed on the progress and the reactions of prospective buyers by way of phone and text messages. She has been an excellent and knowledgeable person to deal with on our behalf, and we have no hesitation in recommending her to any future sellers.

DENIS & SHARON, SELLERS

Lindsay from @realty was simply amazing. She worked so hard to make our purchase come together when we thought it would all fall over. She didn't stop there; Lindsay worked above and beyond expectations through the due diligence and handover process. Straight up info we could trust. We couldn't recommend Lindsay more highly.
